

To Whom it May Concern,

I am vehemently opposed to lifting restrictions on media corporation ownership. This move, if allowed, will allow a news networks to supress news that may reflect badly on the parent corporations. This destroys the objectivity of any media outlet that is owned by the large conglomerates.

This will hurt consumers and ultimately erode public confidence in the media.

Please do not lift these restrictions.

Regards,

-Dusty Smith